Building Community Connections to Support Care

Dr. Lynda C. Davis

Deputy Under Secretary of Defense
(Military Community & Family Policy)

Committed to
READINESS & RESILIENCE

The Paradigm for Community Connections

See. Care. Do.

The Need for Community Connections

NATION

Army Recruiter Suicides Prompt Investigations

by John McChesney

Originally published Saturday, November 17, 2007 at 12:00 AM

E-mail article Print view

Letter from Washington | Alicia Mundy

"Epidemic" of military suicides investigated

Report

Military, VA Confront Rising Suicide Rates Among Troops

The Army says that suicides among active duty personnel have doubled in recent years, and multiple deployments might contribute to that increase, NewsHour correspondent Betty Ann Bowser reports.

Soldier Suicides

Two Texas brothers fall in the war on terror—one in combat, one by his own hand

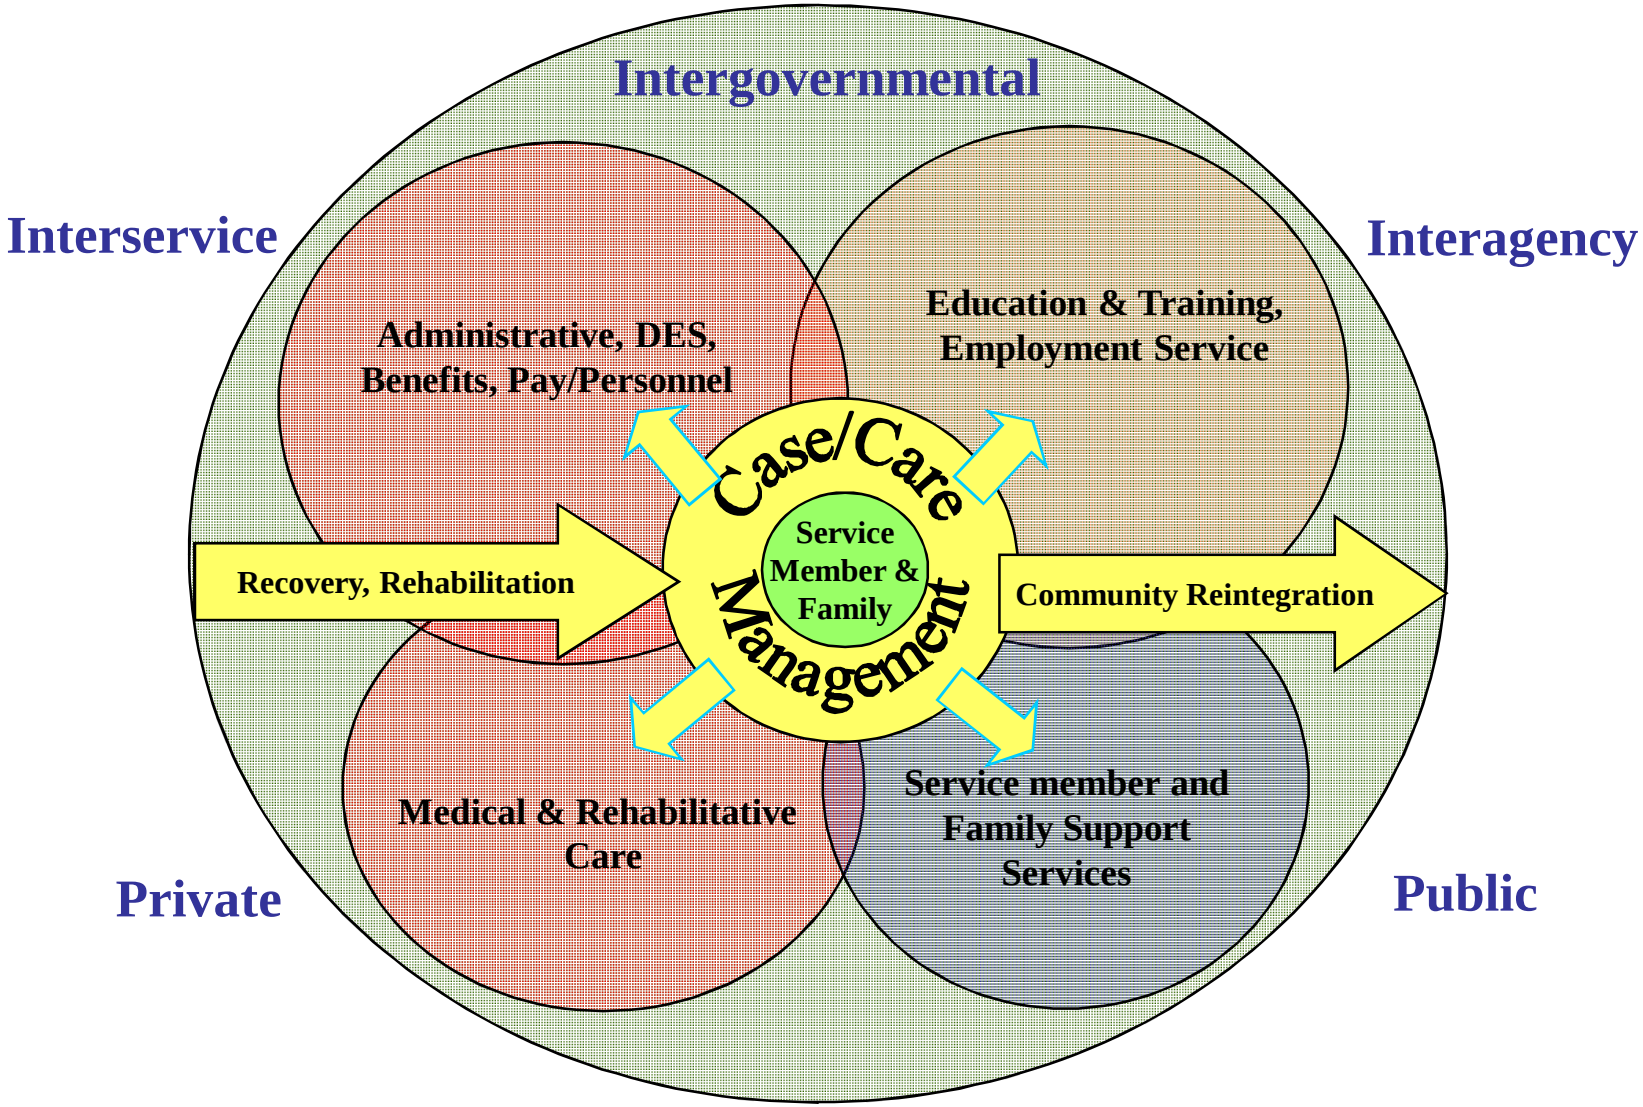
By Megan Feldman

Published on October 01, 2008 at 12:16pm

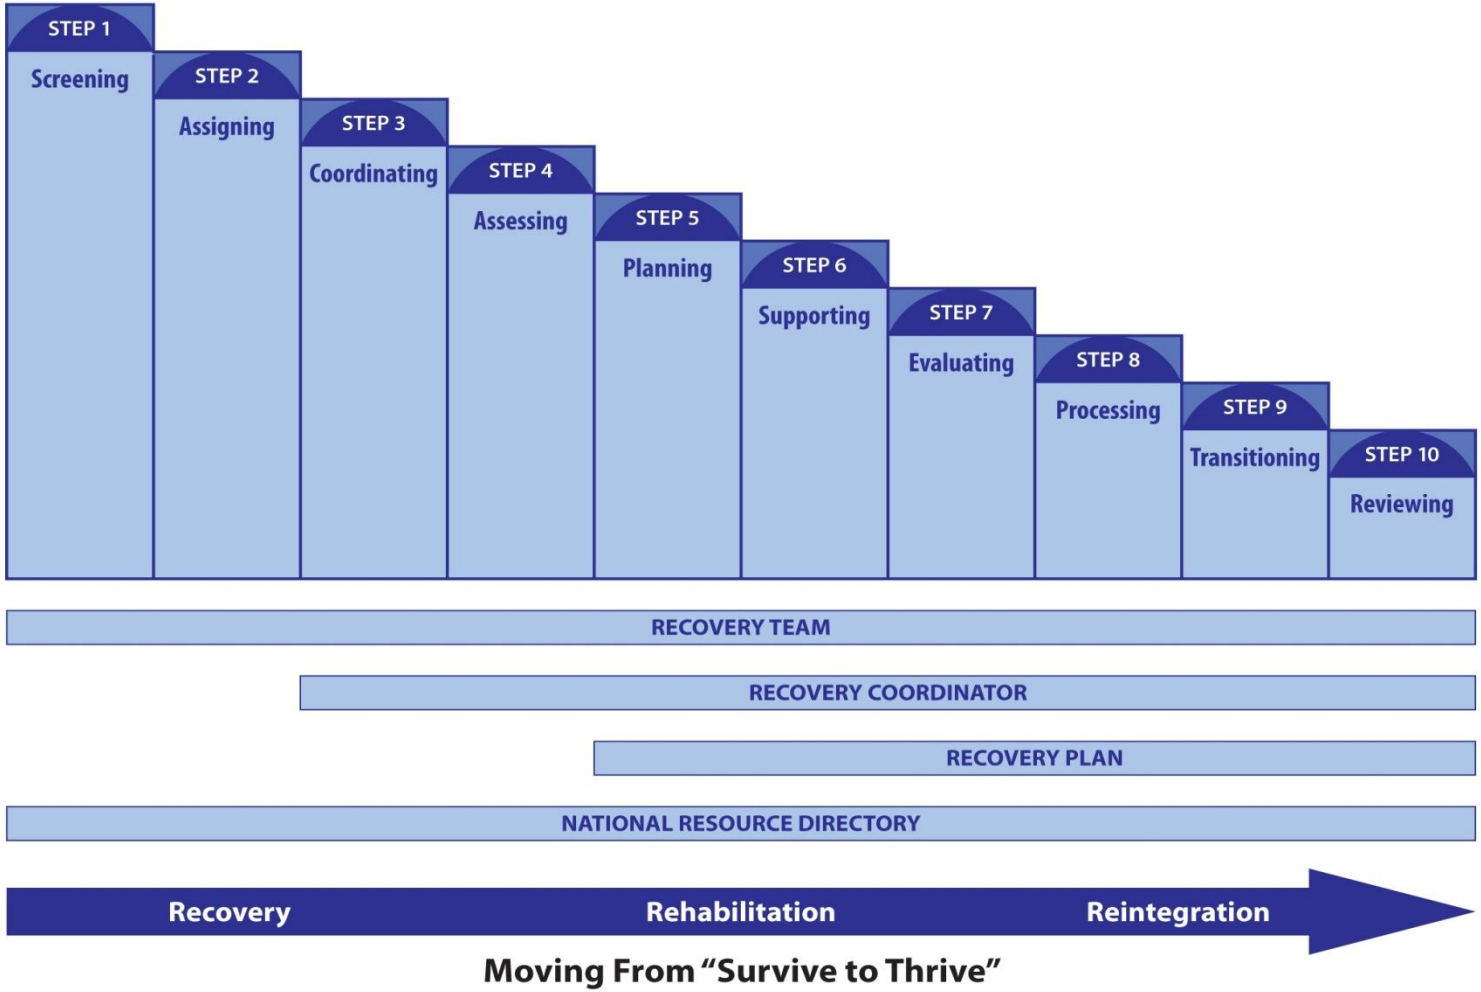
DoD Health Officials Concerned Over Military Suicides

By Sgt. 1st Class Doug Sample, USA
American Forces Press Service

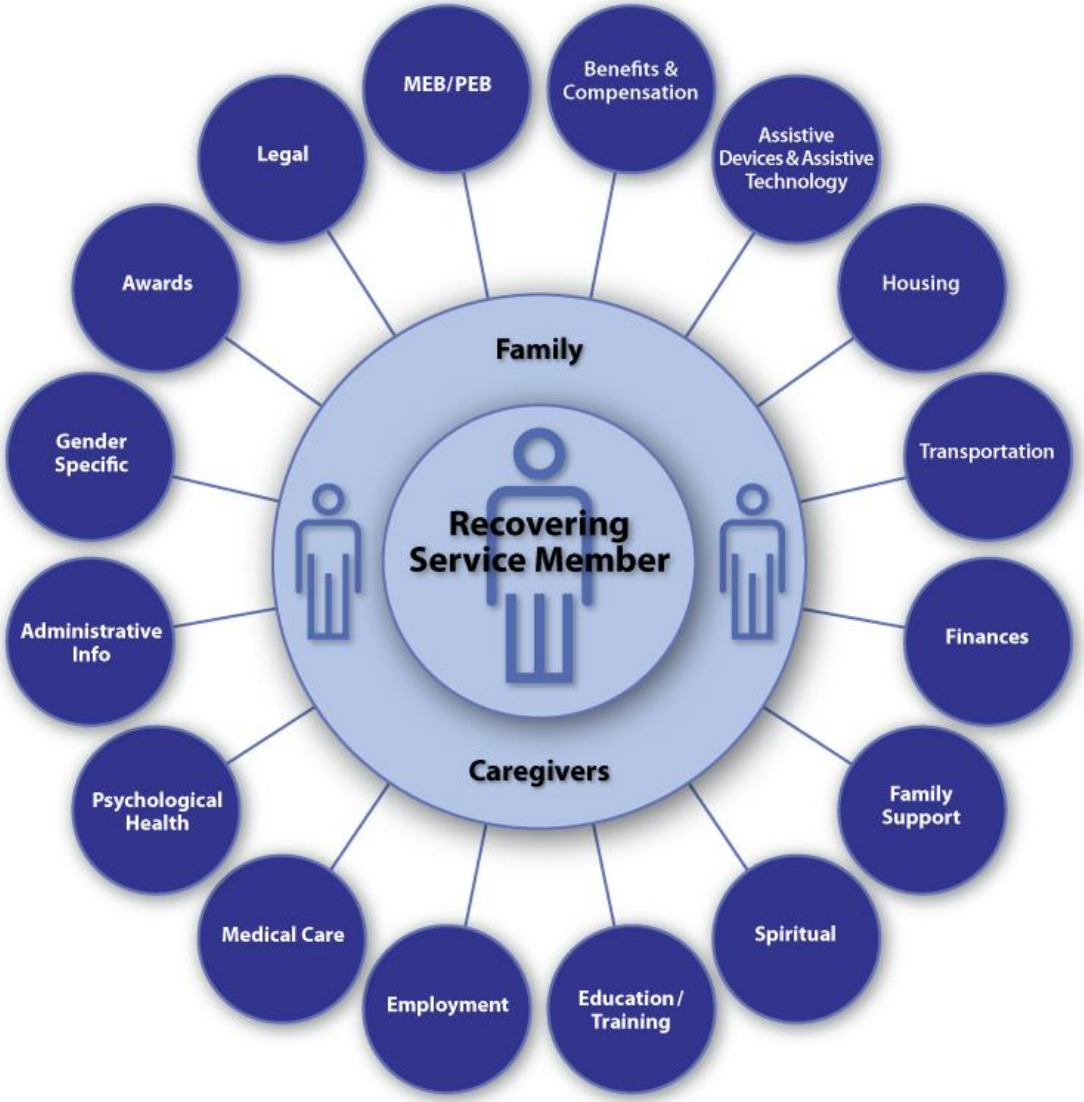
Who is the Community?



The Wounded Warrior Community

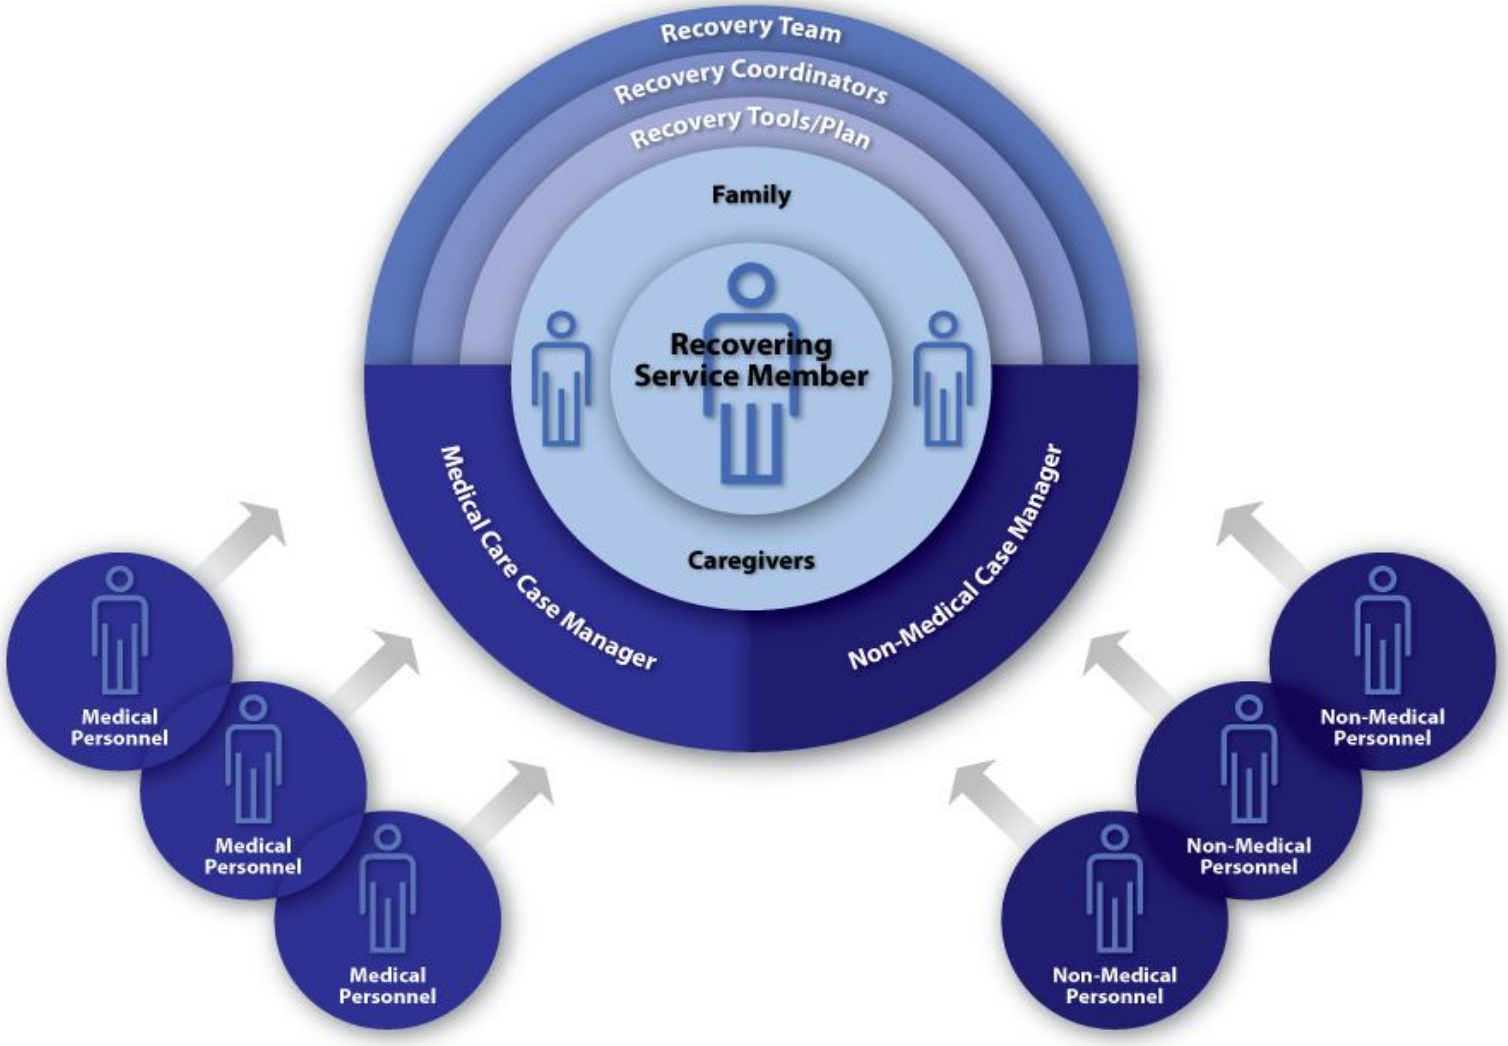


Wounded Warrior Care Tools



Recovery Coordination Plans

Wounded Warrior Care Team

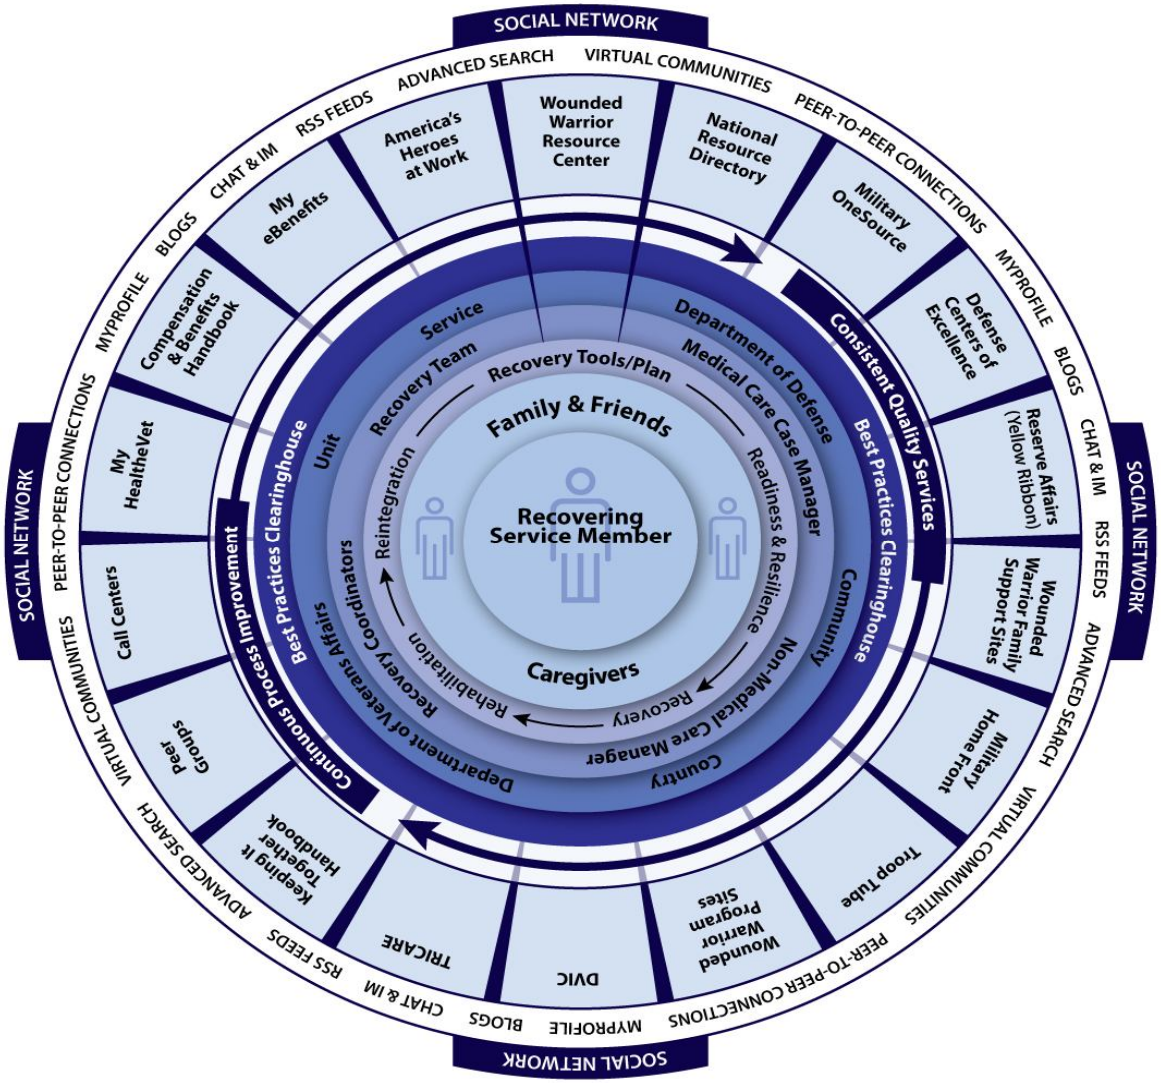


Wounded Warrior and Family Support Community Services

- Wounded Warrior Family Care
  - Wounded Warrior Program Advocates and Recovery Coordinators at MTFs, PRCs and Installations
- Family Support Programs
  - Joint Family Support Assistance Program at States
  - Military Family Life Consultants Units, Child Care (Respite Care) at Installations, States
  - Family Advocacy Program, Transition Assistance Program at Installations
  - Children and Youth Programs, Financial Readiness Training/ Education at Schools
  - Support of Families With Special Needs at Installations and Schools
- Support to Families of the Fallen
  - Casualty Assistance Programs - Unit and Installation

Coast-to-Coast Community Partnerships

The Web 2.0 Community Connection



National Care Coordination Network

Way Ahead – Community Care & Support

- Create a joint Clearinghouse for Promising and Best Practices in Family Support with MC&FP, Health Affairs, Reserve Affairs and Transition Policy and Care Coordination Office to promote consistent quality care and support

- Design the Military Family "Life Map" as guidance for journey from recruitment to retirement; identifying care and support that promote readiness, resilience and reintegration

The Call for Community Care

See. Care. Do.